

GMAT Format Quiz

1. Where do you feel most comfortable taking tests?

1. At home or in a quiet personal space
 2. In a familiar environment like my own room
 3. In a professional setup with no distractions
 4. At a formal test centre where everything is standardized
-

2. How flexible is your schedule?

1. I need the freedom to book or reschedule anytime
 2. I might need to change my plans last minute
 3. My schedule is fixed but I can plan in advance
 4. I prefer having a fixed slot that keeps me accountable
-

3. What kind of environment helps you focus better?

1. My own room with no commute
 2. A quiet setup I can control
 3. A formal test setting
 4. A strict, controlled environment without interruptions
-

4. What's your comfort level with tech setup?

1. Very comfortable with webcams, mic, and system checks
 2. I can manage the basics, no problem
 3. I prefer someone else handling the setup
 4. I don't want to risk any tech issues on test day
-

5. How do you like to take notes or solve problems?

1. I'm fine using an online whiteboard
 2. A physical whiteboard works well for me
 3. I prefer pen-and-paper calculations
 4. I need physical scratch space to think clearly
-

6. How do you feel about security and check-in procedures?

1. I'm okay with online ID verification and room scans
 2. I'm fine with being monitored virtually
 3. I prefer fingerprint scans and in-person ID checks
 4. Traditional check-ins make me feel more secure
-

7. What matters more to you: cost or convenience?

1. I'll pay a little more for added convenience
 2. I like avoiding travel and saving time
 3. I'd prefer a cheaper upfront fee
 4. I want the most cost-effective option possible
-

8. How easily can you ensure a distraction-free space?

1. I live alone or have full control over my space
 2. I can arrange a quiet room during the exam time
 3. I can't guarantee zero interruptions at home
 4. I'd rather not take the risk and go to a centre
-

Results: Add up your choices

- Mostly 1s or 2s →  GMAT Online is your best fit
You value flexibility, convenience, and you're confident in managing your space and tech. The online format gives you full control over your environment.
- Mostly 3s or 4s →  GMAT Test Centre suits you better
You thrive in a structured, no-nonsense setting with minimal distractions. You'll benefit from the professional setup and in-person support of a test centre.

“Did you figure out the best test format for yourself? You can also try one of the mock tests from free resources we have curated for you.”